

Anne Amie

Our mission at Anne Amie Vineyards is to make the finest Pinot Noir in the world. This is a lofty goal, but it well describes our quest. Each person that pulls one of our corks and contemplates our efforts is the final judge of our success in reaching for the pinnacle of fine wine making and shares that quest with us. In Oregon, we are fortunate to have many neighbors with the same passion and high goals. Today, the Willamette Valley is the most exciting and innovative place on earth to make Pinot Noir.
