

MAS DE BAZAN

With the name Mas de Bazán we have re-baptized the one that is perhaps one of the most beautiful and efficient winery of the Valencian community created in 1905. With almost a century of antiquity, the facilities not only remain current, if not that adaptation previous to the most demanding norms hygienic sanitary of today allows to prepare and to raise the wines in the conditions of which the most demanding oenologist would dream.

Table of selection, direct feeding to the despalilladora with fall for gravity of the pasta to the vats of maceration, interchangers of cold, fantastic vertical historical press, pneumatic press and isothermal deposits for the stabilization, are the technology that arranges this splendid winery.

2005 Granbazán Albariño Ámbar $21.99 Retail

An intense and original character (fruity & floral) is noticeable which intensifies on swirling the glass, producing new fruity aromas (apricot, green apple) against a tropical background (pineapple, banana). A highly intense fine finish, with a floral fruit character, resulting in a harmonious balance and long duration.

2005 Rosado $9.99 Retail

Medium-bodied dry rosé wine; light pinkish red. Outstanding red fruit aromas, with strawberry and cherry leading the pack. Luscious, voluptuous red fruit flavors, with exuberant spice. Long finish, crisp and dry. Extraordinary value, and exemplary of the genre. Grapes: Bobal, Grenache and Syrah.

2000 Crianza $12.99 Retail

A blend of Bobal, Tempranillo, Cabernet & Merlot. Intense aromas of grape and fine wood. Strawberry fruits seasoned with cloves and enveloped in vanilla and toffee aromas. Smooth in the mouth, it rapidly gives way to pleasant acid sensation, which, added to the mellow tannin, provides volume in mouth, making this a round wine.